“ I offer my condolences to the Dutkowsky family. Dylan was just an all around good guy, with a kind heart and a general joy for life. He always had a smile on his face or putting one on someone else's. Dylan played football and lived life with an incredible passion. I hope to embody not only his characteristics on the football field but in life. I'm gonna always remember our memories on the football field and in English class. Rest In Peace brother

“ Kelly, Jim, Kendall and family, I do not know what has happened, but, my heart is just broken to see this. It has been years since I've seen Dylan but I know he was the light of your lives. I remember that energetic little boy who was always happy. You were wonderful parents and it reflected in his laughter. My prayers for God's comfort and understanding. My deepest condolences. Gina
