

Earline D. "Liz" Striley

September 1, 1928 - October 7, 2017

Earline "Liz" Striley of Chestertown, MD, died Saturday, October 7, 2017, at her home. She was 89.

Liz was born Sept 1, 1928, in Eddystone, PA, the daughter of the late Earl Reubeck and Gladys "Goodchild" Ruebeck. Mrs. Striley was preceded in death by her first husband, Howard Stansbury in 1976, she remarried to Dale Striley who predeceased her in 1992. Mrs. Striley worked as an electronics assembler for RCA and retired in 1974. During her time working with RCA, she assisted in making the first rocket to travel to the moon which is currently on display at the Smithsonian. Mrs. Striley was a member of the Rock Hall Seniors and the Chestertown Baptist Church.

In addition to her parents and two husbands, she was preceded in death by two sons, James and John Stansbury; sisters, Alberta Krakowski, Virginia Watson, Charlotte Dunion, Leslie Ziebelist, Hazel Walls, Janet Wright; and brothers, Earl Ruebeck and Jack Ruebeck.

She is survived by one daughter, Deborah Thompson (Scott) of Betterton, MD; two sons, Howard Stansbury, Jr., of Montique, CA, Scott Stansbury of Atlanta, GA; two brothers, Walter Ruebeck of Millington, MD, Leonard Ruebeck of Lewes, DE; eight grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and her beloved companion, Thomas Chin of Chestertown, MD.

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, October 14, 2017, from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Betterton Volunteer Fire Co. in Betterton, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be sent to Compass Regional Hospice, 160 Coursevall Dr., Centreville, MD 21617.

Cemetery Details

Private

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

OCT 14. 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM (ET)

Betterton Volunteer Fire Department
Betterton, MD

Tribute Wall

“ Earline D. "Liz" Striley

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Earline D. "Liz" Striley

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Earline D. "Liz" Striley

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ Iris Hynson lit a candle in memory of Earline D. "Liz" Striley

Iris Hynson - October 17, 2017 at 02:05 PM