

Eben White Lothrop

February 18, 1926 - May 4, 2013

Eben White Lothrop passed away early Saturday, May 4, 2013, on his farm at the age of 87. He was born on February 18, 1926, in Philadelphia and was the son of the late Eben W. and Estelle Lothrop.

He is survived by his goddaughter Hilda Burlingham Wilson of San Antonio, TX; his godson, William Perry Wessel, III, of Chestertown; and his beloved fox terrier, Sabrina. Growing up on the family "Clock Tower Farm," in Goshenville, PA, he loved the rural farming environment and developed a strong love for farmland and its preservation. He attended the Sanford School, Cornell University, and Washington College. In 1958, he and his mother purchased "Haven on Bay" Farm in McDaniel, MD, where he lived for the past 55 years. He enjoyed his days watching the crops grow and tending to his orchard trees and beautiful yard along with the assistance of friends Henry Stinton and Jimmy and Jean Willis.

The Lothrop family were owners of several electric companies, including The Chestertown Electric & Light Company which he sold in 1976 to Delmarva Power. He cherished his years visiting Chestertown and made many loyal life-long friends. He had an avid love of politics, history, reading, and British royalty. He was also a supporter of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, The American Farmland Trust, and the Republican National Committee. He gifted a conservation easement on his property to the Eastern Shore Land Conservancy in 1997 with a firm belief in preserving rural lands from being developed and saving his farm for generations to come.

A private memorial service will be held at a later time.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Eastern Shore Land Conservancy, P.O. Box 169, Queenstown, MD 21658.
