

Edith Beall Spindler

April 29, 2000

Edith Beall Spindler, 85, native of Baltimore County, died on April 29, 2000, at her home in Stevensville, MD.

Born at home in Stevensville on November 5, 1914, she was the youngest of the six children of the late William Preston Beall and Hannah Cardwell Beall. Mrs. Spindler graduated from Franklin High School and Towson State Teachers College with a degree in teaching. She taught most of her life in Baltimore County, retiring from Homewood School in Roland Park in 1974. For many years, Mrs. Spindler worked with her husband of 47 years, Jervis (deceased in 1985), at Painter's Mill Music Theater.

She was a member of Stevenson United Methodist Church until closing in 1999. She and her husband retired to their Chesapeake Bay home in Stevensville in 1977. She spent her late years enjoying her many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, the Baltimore Orioles, and travel to her ancestral towns of England and Ireland.

She is survived by her three daughters, Jeanne Armstrong of Wedderburn, OR, Phyllis Howing of Winterville, GA, and Judy Peppel of Stevensville, MD; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Osborne Beall of Stevensville; and many nieces and nephews and lifelong friends.

A memorial service will be held at Christ Episcopal Church in Stevensville on Sunday, May 7, 2000, at 2 p.m. All her friends and family are invited to attend this celebration of her life.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Hospice of Queen Anne's County, 300 Del Rhodes Ave., Queenstown, MD 21658 or the Kent Island Volunteer Fire Department, P.O. Box 27, Stevensville, MD 21666.

Tribute Wall

“ Edith Beall Spindler

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Edith Beall Spindler

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Edith Beall Spindler

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ Mrs. Spindler was my 1st and 2nd grade teacher at the Homewood School. I was just looking at a class picture and wondering what ever happened to her. A Google search brought up this memorial. I have fond memories of Mrs. Spindler, and I send my thoughts and prayers to her family.

Fondly,

Miriam Stokes

Miriam - November 11, 2015 at 04:55 PM