“ My thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you mourn your loss and learn to cope without Edith physically with you. I know that she has been a blessing to me as she showered my daughter with love, guidance and set a great example for her on how to deal with life's knocks. When you hear a laugh, see the sunrise or feel the wind on your face know that she is there with you.

Our prayers are with all of you at this time. We know now she is not suffering any more and she went to be with her Lord. I remember all the "younger" years grouping up with Lonnie and Chris and all the fun times we use to have. Your mom after being diagnosed took it very very strong and arranging her service. I was very honored when she asked me to be a pall bearer in the Spring of 2013 when this day would come. I will remember her smile and laugh all the time.

“ To the entire Myers family, my sincere and heartfelt condolences. Edie and I were so happy to reconnect after all the years since our days at Bel Air High School. We always said we were sisters in a "time in history, the 1960s, and we were also sisters in Christ. I will miss her sweet spirit and beautiful smile.....and our lunches together. I'm so glad I got to talk to her 3 days before she turned so ill, and I was glad to have spent a few minutes with her at the hospital and stroke her hair the day before she passed. I won't be in State at the time of her service, but I will be there in spirit. Thank you Chris and Tracy, for all you did for your mother. You will be blessed. "Well done, thy good and faithful servant."

“ Dearest Family, what the heart has once owned and had, it shall never lose. Losing your wife and mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. She meant the world to you, you were a special part of her life and you made her very happy and proud. So when you're remembering all the special together times she touched with the love only a wife and mother can give, maybe it will help you to think of the joy you brought to her world and how much she loved you, too. May Peace replace heartache, and may warmest memories remain. Sharing in your heartbreak as we grieve the loss of our sister-in-love of nearly 44 years. Keep the Faith. Love, Bev & Doug and Family
