“ Ms. Edith was a terrific person and a really good friend to my mom, Rose Quinn. I grew up with her kids, we went through our later school years together. I know she struggled these past few years, so may you be at peace knowing that she is at peace, and be comforted by all the great memories that can make you smile and laugh again. With love and condolences. Roseanne Quinn (Bell)

“ Visiting Aunt Madeline and Edith at the antique shop is such a happy memory; always a smile and a family story. I will treasure the furniture pieces, the refinished trunk that became a hope chest and the many pieces of cut glass and crystal from there all the more with her passing. She is the last of her generation in our family. Prayers and thoughts to Edie and the rest of the family. I know the past few years have been challenging and take join in her reunion with Charles and her Mom and Dad.

“ Miss Edith gave me my first paying job, 50 cents an hour, to babysit Edith and the twins on New Years Eve. This was just one of many more until I graduated from Stevensville High. She sewed beautifully and made me many pretty dresses, When Bill and I married her daughter was my flower girl. She was a beautiful person, kind and very loving.
