

Edith Natomia Baker

July 15, 2005

Edith Natomia Baker "Tony" of Queenstown, Maryland, formerly of Severna Park, Maryland, died Friday July 15, 2005 at Assisted Living of Annapolis. She was 82.

Born September 27, 1922 in Oneida, Tennessee, she was the daughter of the late, John Newton and Ruby Lou Fryer. While working for the FBI in Washington, DC she met her future husband, Harry P. Baker, Jr. After moving around to different Navy Bases on the East Coast, they made their home and raised their children in Severna Park, MD. During the years they lived in Severna Park, she was a volunteer at Providence Center where she later became employed. After her husband passed away in 1985, Tony moved to the Queenstown, MD to be with her daughter, Rebecca Panek. Tony loved doing crafts so much that Rebecca and she opened a store called Country Corners.

In addition to being survived by her daughter, she is also survived by one son, John Baker of Millersville, MD; four grandchildren, Corrie Schneider and Matthew Baker, both of Ft. Myers, FL., Sarah Ogens and Brian Panek, both of Queenstown, MD; and three great grandchildren Nathan and Emily Schneider, both of Ft. Myers, FL, and Julia Ogens of Queenstown, MD.

Tony was preceded in death by her son, Harry P. Baker III.

A graveside service will be held at 11AM on Wednesday, July 20, 2005 at Eastern Shore Veterans Cemetery, 6827 E. New Market Ellwood Road, Hurlock, MD.

Arrangements were made by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. Chester, MD.
