“ I called him Uncle Orville. Each and everyday, I looked forward to that Sealtest truck pulling up at Mom's house, or wait to see him when he made his delivery to my school. He always made sure I was O.K. As I got older, I saw him through different eyes. I saw a gentle, non-judgemental, and understanding man. He always understood me. These memories are branded in my mind and on my heart forever. I couldn't be there with him, but he had an angel with him to help ease his pain, just the same. Although I know he is where he wanted to be, with Aunt Dorothy, it is hard to let him go. My heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with you all. May GOD bless you!

“ He was a great uncle. Great dad and grandfather. He was my dad's best friend and big brother. When my dad passed away in '94, I was in Haifa, Isreal trying to get a flight back to the states, I called him and said hold down the fort till I get there. Everytime I would go and see him he always mentioned that call I made from halfway around the world.
