

Edward Vincent Bowerman

April 14, 1960 - June 3, 2022

Edward Vincent Bowerman, a resident of Easton, MD, died on Friday, June 3, 2022. He was 62.

Ed was born in Baltimore, MD, the son and sixth child of Carolyn and Daniel Bowerman. He attended the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. Like his father, he worked in the printing industry, ending his career as a prepress platemaker for Solo Cup.

Ed was a sports fan and followed college basketball when he wasn't cheering the wins and mourning the losses of the Orioles and Ravens. In his earlier years, he was a fearless skydiver. He enjoyed relaxing with friends and family, listening to country music, and playing golf. He was fiercely independent and did not like to be fussed over. Many will remember him fondly for his candor, wit, and infectious laughter, often at his own jokes and expense.

He is survived by his loving family, siblings Sharon Bowerman, Biays Bowerman (Linda), Daniel Bowerman, Carolyn Schemm (Donald), Jane Healy (Jim), Miriam Bowerman (Nelson) and stepmother of more than 40 years, Libby Bowerman. He was also adored by his nieces and nephews, Laura Zamenski (1975-2000), Sara Oglesby, Debra Zamenski, Kate Bowling, Alex Bowerman, Logan Murphy, Maille Bowerman, Kim Kianka, Jimmy Healy, Maureen Healy and Clare Healy; as well as eight great-nieces and -nephews and many cousins.

Please join family and friends to share stories and memories of Ed on Sunday, August 28, 2022 from 3:00 to 5:00 pm at Fellows Heffenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 200 South Harrison Street, in Easton, MD.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to any charitable organization that supports cancer research, prevention, education or care.

“ So sorry for the family to hear that Ed has left us. I met Ed back in the 90s and we hit it off as good friends. We took the chances of jumping out of those perfectly good airplanes together. You will be missed Ed and when you get to where you are going remember as you would say " Drive fast and take chances!!". My thoughts and prayers to all Ed's family for your loss.

“ Hello co-worker Ed; you will be missed. I am glad our paths crossed while we worked at SoloCup Federalsburg. Work brings people together. I enjoyed the times of coming over and fixing your label maker/printer, etc.

My Ed, this is a sad loss and surprise to get notified on. Rest in peace my friend.

sincerely,

Terrence Bernard
