“ I had the privilege of working with Ed in the late 70s at IBM. He was one of our best salesmen, always in early eager to start the day.

The world is a better place because there are people of Ed's caliber in it. My condolences to his family and thank you for sharing Ed with us.

“ It's hard to believe it's been over 40 years since Ed and I were a team at IBM. I was just out of college and I'm sure I drove him crazy but with his positive attitude and generous spirit he helped mentor me and others. He had an incredible work ethic and on snow days was always the first one into the office. He led by example in all he did. My deepest sympathy and prayers to Marge and the Boyer family.

“ Ed Boyer was my Godfather. I called him Uncle Ed, even though we were not blood related. He taught me more about being a man in life than my own father did. I always wished he could have been my Dad. I will remember him always as that role model he was to me. He has been my friend all my life. Uncle Ed saved me a place, until we meet again. “ I'd like to imagine that there is a little red truck driven by Ed driving up and down the streets of heaven checking on friends and neighbors. We loved having the Boyers as neighbors in Bozman and knew Ed was always keeping an eye out for us! Rest in peace, neighbor.

“ My most blessed condolences to each of you as you sift through the many emotions that the death of a loved one brings. Thankfully though, Mr. Boyer (proper etiquette because of how I was raised) was a baptized, confirmed, married, reconciled, anointed, and communicant (daily during much of his life) which means he didn't really die but really he's transitioning into his heavenly home - he left us all with an example of how to live our lives!

I don't think I'll be able to attend the visitation, Rosary and Funeral, but I will continue to lift each one of you family members in prayer daily that God will shower you with His graces sufficiently for you to get through this grief and into the realm of joy - because of where we know Mr Ed Boyer is now a permanent resident - living, loving, and helping all of us from his new home!

*Sincerely and prayerfully,
Thomas R Cone II (Peggy's Husband)*
