“ With love to all our family and friends as we remember Cousin Ed today and for years to come. He was so much a part of our lives, especially on festive occasions when his cheerful presence brought so much to our gatherings. I always enjoyed seeing Cousin Ed whenever I visited, and also enjoyed hosting him and Cousin Betsy when they came to my town. His appreciation of fine cars, travel, vintage movies, all forms of media, singing, and books, showed an appreciation of life, and he always enjoyed a good chat across the dinner table to catch up on events big and small. He will be much missed. With love, Robin

“ I remember Cousin Ed fondly; he and Betsy had us over when we were kids and I remember his love of old radio shows. Later in life he hosted me when I visited Aunt Lois and Uncle Bill for Thanksgiving. My condolences to the Schenker family.
