

Edward Bromwell Freeman

December 21, 2000

Edward Bromwell Freeman, of Easton formerly of Baltimore, died at the Wm. Hill Health Care Center, Easton, on Thursday, December 21, 2000. He was 96.

Born in Baltimore, October 8, 1904, he was the son of the late John William and Margaret Bromwell Freeman. After completing his education in Baltimore schools, he joined the Baltimore brokerage firm of Lockwood Peck in April of 1923 where he was a broker's broker for the New York Stock Exchange. He remained with the firm until 1964 when he joined Alex Brown and Sons as head of the trading department. He retired in 1982.

A resident of Talbot County since 1970, he was a member of Christ Church, Easton, the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club and the Talbot Country Club. He was a former member of the Maryland Club, the L'Herondelle Club and a former trustee of St. Paul's School for Boys. He was also a former member and past president of the Bond Club of Baltimore and a founding member and past president of the Baltimore Security Traders Association. His wife, Mildred Howard Freeman, died in March of 1991 and his son, Edward B. Freeman, Jr. died in 1964. There are no immediate family survivors.

Memorial services will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2001 at 2 P.M. at Christ Church, Easton. Burial will be at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586
Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD. 21601

Tribute Wall

“ Edward Bromwell Freeman

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Edward Bromwell Freeman

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Edward Bromwell Freeman

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM