

Edward H. Bowman

June 10, 1916 - February 5, 2010

Edward Henry Bowman passed away on Friday, February 5 at Genesis the Pines in Easton. He was 93.

Born on June 10, 1916, he was the son of Ida Rose Emma and Professor Edward Henry Bowman. He graduated from Easton High School, where he excelled in track and soccer. During World War II, he managed Easton's Western Union office, helping to keep the town up to date on world events. For over twenty years, he worked at local electronics shops, building and repairing radios, phonographs and television sets.

Ed led a Big Band-style dance band, delighting audiences with his performances on the clarinet and saxophone. He worked with the Easton Community Band. He also had many friends at various local meeting spots.

Throughout his life, Ed was a member of several different local churches. His life was centered on the values of family, friends, town, country and honesty.

Ed's family would like to thank the staff of Genesis the Pines for the loving care they provided.

He is survived by a daughter, Eileen Bowman, and a grandson, Donald Bowman. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife,

Anna Marville, and his sister, Elenor Bowman Garey.

A funeral will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Easton on Friday, February 19, 2010 at 2:00 p.m., where friends may call one hour prior.

Burial will be held at Spring Hill cemetery in Easton.
