

Edward H. Schmidt III

April 5, 2005

EDWARD HERMAN SCHMIDT, III

STEVENSVILLE, MD: Edward Herman Schmidt, III of Stevensville, Md., died on Tuesday, April 5, 2005 at Southern Maryland Hospital in Clinton, Md. He was 58.

He was born in Cheverly, Md., on October 14, 1946, the son of the late Edward herman Schmidt, Jr., and the late Margaret Virginia Stommel Schmidt. Mr. Schmidt attended Bladensburg High School. He worked as a pressman at Communications Corp. of America in Virginia.

Mr. Schmidt is survived by three daughters, Cynthia Marie Simms of Virginia, Nancy Colleen Coultis or Ridgely, Md., Channin Corrine Breeden of Spotsylvania, Va.; three sisters, Georginia Gale Spitzer of Stevensville, Md., Peggy Ann Allen of Queenstown, Md., and Terry Lee Nickerson of Deale, Md.; a brother, James Allan Schmidt of Stevensville, Md., and four grandchildren, Heather Simms, Matthew Simms, River Coultis and Blare Breeden.

Services are private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to: National Kidney Foundation of Maryland, 1107 Kenilworth Drive, Suite 202, Baltimore, MD 21204. Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Chester, Md.