

Edward V. Edge

July 23, 2001

Dover, DE: Edward V. "Snipe" Edge of near Dover, De, died at his home on Monday, July 23, 2001 of heart failure. He was 85.

Mr. Edge was born in Middletown, De, the son of the late Zedric and Amanda Edge. Mr. Edge worked for several years at Rebourne Farms near Centreville, MD. He then worked for the Town of Centreville for 18 years until he retired working in the Maintenance Dept. and caring for the power plant.

Mr. Edge enjoyed playing music in his bands "The Country Stardusters" and "Home Sweet Home Boys". He also enjoyed gardening and working on small engines.

Mr. Edge served in the United States Army.

He is preceded in death by his 1st wife, Mary Emma Edge in 1979 and a daughter, Margaret "Peggy" Walls in March of this year and a grandson, Joey Walls in 1994.

He is survived by his wife of 13 years, Margaret C. Edge; four daughters, Mary Lee Boyles of Chestertown, MD, Barbara Jonczak of Centreville, MD, Frances Osbourn of Chesapeake City, MD and Darlene Alton of Henderson, MD; one son, Thomas E. Edge of Worton, MD and a grandson he raised,

Ronnie Edge of Millington, MD; one step-son, Bruce Graham of Kenton, DE; a sister, Viola Hollingsworth of Stevensville, MD; a brother, Paul Edge of Salisbury, MD and 19 grandchildren, several great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, July 26, 2001 at 11:00 AM from the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville, MD where friends and family may call one hour prior to the service.

Interment will be in the Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Edward V. Edge

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Edward V. Edge

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Edward V. Edge

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM