

Edwin Clarkson Fry

February 8, 1924 - June 1, 2012

Edwin C. Fry, 88, of Chestertown, MD, died June 1, 2012, at the Washington Hospital Center.

Born in Washington, DC, on February 8, 1924, he was the son of the late Edwin D. and Susan Clarkson Fry.

The oldest of five children, Ed graduated from Gaithersburg High School in 1942 and operated the family farm in Laytonsville with his father and siblings. During his youth, he was an active 4-H member, receiving state and national recognition. In 1945, Ed married Lorraine Millerp of of Mount Vernon, NY.

As a young entrepreneur, Ed was an innovative leader in the agricultural industry. In addition to his dedication to FFA and recognition as an American Star Farmer, he helped to establish the Montgomery County Agricultural Center, served as a director for the National Holstein Association, pioneered new technologies in partnership with the Maryland Cooperative Extension Service, and promoted agriculture internationally with the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service.

Ed and Lorraine moved Fair Hill Farm to Chestertown in 1960 with their four young children. Active throughout Kent County, Ed continued to mentor young agriculturalists, advanced farming practices and served his community as a Rotarian and active member of the Presbyterian Church of Chestertown. Ed later served as a longtime board member for both the Maryland State Fair and Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

Ed is predeceased by his siblings, George Fry and Amy F. Leber. He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Lorraine; brother, Frederick of Sudlersville; sister, Margery F. Grace, of Trumansburg, NY; daughter, Joan and husband Dr. Doug Cummings of Bay City, MI; and three sons, Edwin R. and wife Marian; Dr. Robert Fry and Judy Gifford; and Kenneth and wife Bronwyn, all of Chestertown. "Pop Fry," as he was fondly known to many, found great joy in his nine grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

A private family service was held Monday, June 4. A Celebration of Life memorial will be held on June 30 at 11a.m. at the Presbyterian Church of Chestertown.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to The Presbyterian Church of Chestertown, 905 Gateway Drive, Chestertown, MD 21620, or the Maryland 4-H Foundation, Edwin C. Fry Memorial, 8020 Greenmead Drive, College Park, MD 20740.

My heart goes out to the Fry family. I met them and got to know them when I was Farm Queen for Kent County and they were wonderful. Cherish all the wonderful memories as I will also. My thoughts and prayers are with the Fry family.

“ My memories of Mr. Fry go back to when I was 7 years old and then a lifetime. As an adult now, I truly understand the impact Mr. Fry had on our family. I don't know what my parents would have done without him. Onery and wonderful. Will be missed by many. Bless you all.

“ To All Of the Fry Family:

It was a pleasure to know your Father Ed. He was a wonderful man. I have alot of fond memories with some of the Fry Families and they are very special to me. I have watched alot of your children grow up to be wonderful adults and Ed was very proud of each and everyone of you when he would talk about you to George and I. I hope that in time all of you can remember all the fond memories and keep him very close to your heart. You all were truely blessed to be able to have your parent in your life for alot of years. Cherrish your Mom, and other family members and lean on each other.

Fondly,

George and Candy Wilson
