

Eleanor W. Blades

May 1, 2004

Eleanor Whiteley Blades of Easton, MD, died peacefully at her home on Saturday, May 1, 2004, after a short battle with cancer.

Born August 9, 1920, in Queen Anne's County, she was the daughter of the late Frank Y., Sr. and Evalyn Bryan Whiteley. She married E. Sheldon Blades, Jr., on June 28, 1946, and they made their home in Talbot County. Mr. Blades died December 27, 1994. Her early employment included serving as secretary to Bishop Miller of the Episcopal Diocese in Easton.

Eleanor was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, the Talbot Country Club and served in various civic organizations. An excellent cook, she was an avid bridge player and enjoyed the game of golf with the distinction of achieving two holes-in-one. She had great affection for her many friends, especially those friends she made at the bridge table.

Mrs. Blades is survived by her brother, Frank Y. Whiteley, Jr. of Camden, SC; two nephews, David A. Whiteley also of Camden and Alan L. Whiteley of Woodbine, MD; a great nephew, Seth Whiteley of Woodbine; and a great niece, Kyle Whiteley of New York. She will be greatly missed by the Everett S. Blades, Sr., family who cherished her as part of the Blades family for almost sixty years.

A private, family graveside service will be held at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Easton, MD. Honorary pallbearers will be her nephews C. Craig Blades, Alan L. Whiteley and David A. Whiteley, and nephews-in-law, Carl D. Chapman, Brandon H. Harrell, James F. Mosberg, Jr., G. Anthony Rubino and Eric L. Steward.

Memorial donations may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton, MD 21601 or The Memorial Hospital Foundation, PO Box 1846, Easton, MD 21601.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton.
