“ I was so sorry to hear of Eleanor's death. My husband was in Sunbrige 3 years and since his passing I have tried to visit several friends there every other week, including Eleanor. She always showed me her newest dolls and animals and she got so put out with me when I didn't understand her. She would poke me and say no! no! and I would retreat and try again. I have enjoyed knowing her and I am sorry for your loss. May she rest in peace. sincerely, frenchy###imported-begin###Frenchy Lightcap###imported-end##

“ Please know our hearts & prayers are with you at this time. She was a remarkable, talented, loving woman. We are so blessed that she was in our lives. Eleanor & I had a few moments when we were "partners in crime" as we used to say when we went riding around. We miss her so.##imported-begin##Terri & Gene##imported-end##
