“ Our prayers go out to the Duston family for their loss of their mom and grandmother. Betty was cousin and a friend to my mother, Laura (Bryden) Sappington. Betty will never die as long as those whom she loved never forget her.

“ Miss Betty was one of the sweetest people we had the honor of knowing. Her lovely smile and open arms are a memory Maurice and I will always remember. I personally have such special feelings about all of my summer vacation Bible school experiences with Miss Betty and all the other friendly happy ladies. May God be with you easing your pain but know he was there waiting for her with open arms.

Karen, Jeff and families - or hearts and prayers go out to you all. Mrs. Betty was a special person who taught MANY a young child from Skinners Neck, Piney Neck and Rock Hall about the Lord in that little Sunday School Room at Raum Chapel. She loved the children and I can see her now in all her glory with God and surrounded by the children of Heaven! May she rest in peace and may God's love surround all of you now. Please let us know if we can do anything for you! {{{{HUGS}}}}}
