She was born on December 24, 1929, in Chestertown, MD, to the late Bradford and Frances Schauber.

Betty graduated Class of 1946 from Chestertown High School. She married Charles N. Taylor, Sr., on February 23, 1949. She was predeceased by her first husband along with their son, Charles N. Taylor, Jr., a grandson, Charles Basil Taylor, sisters Ann Jacquette and Eleanor Connolly, and her brother, William B. Schauber.

Betty retired in 1984 from the Easton Police Department after 30 years of service as a crossing guard and dispatcher. She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Chestertown, a member of Frank M. Jarman Auxiliary Post #36, and a member of VFW Post 652 Auxiliary. Betty spent many hours volunteering with these organizations and also worked in the Nearly New Shop. You could find Betty dancing at the VFW, playing cards with friends, and, of course, always inviting someone over to enjoy a meal with her and George. Betty is survived by her husband of 43 years, George R. Glenn.

God bless the family. Aunt Betty was a great lady and took time to make sure we were ok after moms death. She will always remain in my thoughts. Loved my God mother dearly. Sorry I could not be there for the service. Thoughts and prayers are with everyone. Bobby V.

“ Blood and DNA do not make a family...Love does. This precious woman was in our lives for forty five years...longer than our own mother was. She loved our father with all her heart and treated my brothers and I as her own. She was a wonderful person living to serve God and do his work. She was caring and giving, always doing for others and helping everyone any way she could. As her body became tired and weak she knew it was time to make the transition from this world to the world of eternity. It was so hard to watch her get weaker every day, but in the end I am so thankful that she found the peace that she was so deserving of. Life as you know it can change in a heartbeat so treasure what you have today. She was our mother just as much as our biological mother was and I will love her and miss her forever.

My heart is with you all -- especially my special and wonderful friend Linda Clark-Helms, her sister, daughter and son. Linda cared for and worried about her mother a great deal and will be sorely missed. She is no longer in pain and is at peace. Sending my love and deepest sympathy!!

Betty was what ever person wants in a neighbor, a good person, and a great friend but still knocked before she came to visit. She enjoyed a good joke and was a great source of news of the neighborhood. I have said this many, many times if the Glenn's moved I was going to find out where and buy the house next door. If Betty does not get into Heaven then there is no hope for the rest of us.

“ My condolences to Betty's family. I worked with her several years at Easton PD. If there was anyone that was more dedicated to their work I don't know who it would be. She was tireless, dedicated, funny and anything else to describe a wonderful lady. I am pleased to say she was a friend. Bless you Betty.
