“ Ms. Elizabeth, you were such a sweet and gracious lady. Some of my best days were spent in your company, thank you for the wonderful adventures and memories. I especially loved our drives to Delaware, the times we spent at the Sudlersville Senior Center and your great love for your church, Holden Chapel. May you rest in peace. xoxo

“ Elizabeth was such a quiet and sweet lady. She was the oldest lady at Holden’s Chapel. She loved going to hymn sings, homecoming services and Easter egg hunts where she would always bring her famous deviled eggs. I loved hearing stories about her childhood. If she needed a ride she knew she could just give us a call. She will be missed by all. Heaven sure did gain a special angel. Prayers for the family. Love
