“ I am so sorry for your loss. When someone we loved die, we mourn. And we may ask: What has happen to them? Are they suffering? May it help you and your family to know that Ecclesiastes 3:11 read: "For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing at all". So your loved one is in no pain, she is like in a deep sleep, hoping to be in God's memory, so that she may be brought back to life soon. Please find some strength and comfort from this, in your days ahead.

*Dear Mo, Susie, and all of the Kehoe family, I am so very sad to learn of Betty's passing. I have such fond memories of spending time on the Eastern Shore with Mo and Betty. Betty introduced me to softshell crab and laughed until she cried when I tried to peel the shell off! She always showed me and everyone such love, kindness and acceptance. She will remain in my heart forever. Please know that I am keeping her and the entire Kehoe family in my thoughts and prayers. Much love,
