

Elizabeth Ann Schreiner

August 27, 1959 - August 7, 2026

Elizabeth "Beth" A. Schreiner

Elizabeth "Beth" A. Schreiner, 66, of Millsboro, Delaware, passed away unexpectedly at her home on August 7, 2026, in the arms of her loving husband, John.

Beth was born on August 27, 1959, in Baltimore, Maryland, the daughter of Harold and Louise Scott. She was raised in Baltimore and graduated from Southern High School in 1977. Beth worked in bookkeeping before stepping away from her career to focus on raising her family. She and her family made their home on Maryland's Eastern Shore, where they spent more than 20 years before she later settled in Millsboro, Delaware.

Beth had a creative spirit and loved spending her time making things with her hands. She especially enjoyed diamond art, sewing, and painting, as well as journaling. She loved being near the water, whether spending time at the beach or out boating, and she was always happy to settle in and cheer on the Baltimore Ravens. A woman of strong Baptist faith, Beth's belief in God was an important part of her life and remained a source of strength throughout the years.

Beth was strong-minded, strong-willed, and unapologetically herself. She knew what she wanted and believed in living life on her own terms—a quality those who knew her well will remember with both love and a smile. Beneath that determination was an enormous heart. Beth was deeply caring and generous, always willing to give to those she loved and to help others however she could. Her giving nature and the love she had for her family will remain an enduring part of her memory.

Beth is survived by her husband, John; her children, Michael Schreiner and his wife, Julie, Scott Schreiner, and Christina Johns and her husband, Alex; her seven grandchildren, TJ Schreiner, Paige Chatterton, Ellen Schreiner, Irene Schreiner, Josslyn Johns, Lochryn Johns, and Ellis Johns; and her brothers, Harold “Has” Scott Jr. and his wife, Catherine, and Harry “Lou” Scott and his wife, Janet. She also leaves behind her beloved dog, Pearl, who brought her great companionship and joy.

Services will be private, allowing Beth’s family to gather together in remembrance and celebration of her life. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a memorial donation to the American Cancer Society in Beth’s memory.
