

Elizabeth C. Lednum

September 6, 2006

Elizabeth Ann Cockey Lednum of Tilghman, MD died suddenly on Wednesday, September 6, 2006. She was 52.

Born in California on August 13, 1954, she was the daughter of Jeanne Watson Cockey and the late John Millis Cockey, USMC ret. As a child of a career marine, she lived in several states throughout the U.S., returning most summers to the ancestral home in Claiborne, MD. After graduating from Annapolis High School in 1972, she had the opportunity to reside with her family in Taiwan, where she formed a love for the art and language of the Chinese culture. Upon her return to the U.S. to attend college, she met and married her husband, Neal Paul Lednum of Tilghman in 1974. In 1983, they were blessed with a child, Neal Elizabeth Rose "Nalise" Lednum.

Liz was a people and horses person, never seeming to meet a stranger, always loving and caring for horses, especially her own. As a member of the Tuckahoe Equestrian Club, she enjoyed trail rides with friends. Reading and sewing were her two relaxing hobbies.

Elizabeth was predeceased by her father, John M. Cockey USMC ret. She leaves behind her husband of almost thirty-two years, Neal Lednum; their daughter, Nalise L. Mullikin, son-in-law, Robert Henry Mullikin III, and grandson, Robert Henry Mullikin IV of Wittman, MD; her mother Jeanne W.

Cockey and sister Salvadora A. Cockey of Claiborne, MD; sister, Dorothy C. Lloyd, brother-in-law, Barry Wyatt Lloyd and nephew Ian Wyatt Lloyd of Winchester, VA; and sister, Barbara J. "Beja" Marshall and her companion, Edward L. Torbert of Easton, MD. She also leaves behind a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Liz had a long career at Railway Market in Easton where she leaves many loyal customers and friends.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, September 12, 2006 at 11:00 AM at Tilghman United Methodist Church, Tilghman, MD.

Burial will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Tilghman Vol. Fire Co., 5979 Tilghman Island Rd., Tilghman, MD 21671.
