

Ella R. North

April 5, 1918 - September 9, 2010

After a long battle with cancer, Ella Ruth North, 92, of Easton, finally succumbed on Thursday, Sept. 9, 2010 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

She was born April 5, 1918 on the family farm near Lewiston and was the daughter of the late, Arvey Dwight and Nina May Snively Miller.

She attended school in Cordova and went on to graduate from the Delaware School of Nursing in Wilmington, Delaware. On June 21, 1942, she married Norman Charles North at Fairview Church of the Brethren. She was a registered nurse at the Memorial Hospital at Easton and a life-long member of the Church of the Brethren. Both were paths that reflected her generosity and her unflinching spirit. She had the innate ability to nurture and to grow which showed in her love of flowers and family. She enjoyed the simple pleasures in life with most of her activities and happiness coming from church and family.

She was our special girl and a wonderful mother. She is survived by five children and their spouses, Jerry North and his wife, Judy, of Preston, Wanda Baynard and her husband, Mat, of Easton, Dennis North and his wife, Sharon, of Easton, Faye Miller and her husband, Eddie, of New Mexico, Linda MacSorley and her husband, Victor, of St. Michaels; eight grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren and three siblings, Edith Spies of Denton, Kenneth Miller of Fort Myers, FL, and Oretha Harrington of Ridgely. She was preceded in death by her husband, two sisters, and one grandson.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, September 16 at 11:00 am at the Easton Church of the Brethren, located at 412 S. Harrison St. in Easton, where friends may call from 10:00 – 11:00 am.

Burial will follow at the Fairview Cemetery in Cordova, MD.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Easton.
