“ Mrs. Casbarian will be greatly missed by many generations of Sherwoodites. She was a wonderful woman who always had a smile, and someone I always enjoyed spending time with. I have many fond memories with Mrs. Cas...talking Maryland sports, going to games together at College Park and, of course, chatting on the store porch! God bless, and may she rest in eternal peace...##imported-begin##Kyle Ritchie##imported-end##

“ Dear Harv, Steve, Sally , Beth and families,
Our family was saddened to learn of the death of Ellen. So many fun memories between our families are tied together.
We can almost see her getting together every evening now for cocktails with my dad, Don. (smile)
On a more serious note, we know how painful the loss of a parent is, and we wish all of you Peace.
Fondly,

“ Dear Beth,

I was sorry to hear about the death of your mother. I remember how nice she was whenever I was at your house. I am sure that you'll have many pleasant memories of your mother to keep you going thru this tough time.

Do you remember me from Northwestern high school? I lived on Rhode Island Ave. I now live north of Chestertown, outside of Still Pond. It would be nice to re connect some time if you'd like.

*My email address is hkjequus@baybroadband.net
I would be great to hear from you.*

“ Dear Harvey (Casbarian),

The notice of Ellen's passing in the Washington Post, which included her photo, brought back fond memories of our lives in College Park when we were neighbors. We were both fond of Ellen and remember her as a gracious and most friendly person. Brigitte and I send you and your family our heartfelt sympathy.

Sincerely,

Jack Stenger

P. S. Not having your address, I had to use e-mail to contact you, but it is no less sincere.##imported-begin##Jack Stenger##imported-end##

“ Sally,

Very sorry to see the notice of your mom passing. Though I never met Ellen, I can tell she was really a shining light to everyone who knew her. I'm so pleased that you're celebrating her life, it truly makes sense. If you get sad, just think of the old days w/ our pals at NW, and all the fun of doing G & D. I remember that you were the real "sparkplug" of that show. Your cheerful, out-going personality always made us smile. Please give my heartfelt condolences to your father and your entire family. Take good care always. May God bless.

“ Dear Harvey-

We want to express our very deepest sympathy over your loss of Ellen.

Ellen and you were the first people we met at Sherwood and always made everyone feel wanted and warm.

She was the light of all who knew her, and the "Mrs." of Sherwood of the porch get togethers.

We will truly miss her.
