

Elmer Daniel Breeden

November 11, 2006

Elmer Daniel Breeden of Stevensville, MD died at his home Saturday November 11, 2006. He was 78.

Born on March 8, 1928 in Washington, DC he was the son of the late Benjamin Jackson Breeden and Ethel Burke. He was raised on a small farm in Brentsville, VA until he enlisted in the Merchant Marines in 1945. During his enlisted time he would meet and later marry June Shipley in 1947. After he was honorably discharged he would return to the Washington, DC. area and soon establish his own plumbing company, Breeden Plumbing and Heating in Mt. Rainer. Over the years they resided in the Silver Springs, Hyattsville, and Annapolis, MD, but Mr. Breeden especially enjoyed the summer months at their home along the Chester River on Kent Island, where they would eventually make their permanent residence. He would retire in June of 1998. Always to be remembered as a handyman, Mr. Breeden enjoyed his seasonal trips to the east coast of Florida, playing cards, gardening and especially antiquing with June.

He is survived by his beloved wife June Breeden of Stevensville, MD; a daughter Peggy Hollidge of Beltsville, MD; three sons Ronald Breeden of Flintstone, MD; Daniel Breeden of Bethesda, MD and Bruce Breeden of Asheville, NC; three sisters Hazel, Charlotte and Vivian. Eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held 11AM on Wednesday November 15, 2006 at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. in Chester, MD.. The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc. 423 Thompson Creek Road Stevensville, MD 21666.
