

Eloise C. McWilliams

September 3, 2003

Eloise C. "Nookie" McWilliams of Easton, MD died on Wednesday, September 3, 2003 at Memorial Hospital at Easton. She was 72.

Born August 9, 1931 in Preston, MD, she was the daughter of the late Walter E. and Marie Perry Covey. After graduating from Hurlock High School in 1948, she attended Goldey Beacom Business College, where she graduated in 1950. She began her career in banking after graduation but retired for several years to raise her daughter. In 1970, she began working for Bank of America Banking Systems from which she retired in 1990. She also worked as a switchboard operator for Dorchester General Hospital.

A member of the Order of The Eastern Star, Minerva Chapter in Dorchester County, she was also a former member of the North Dorchester High School Band Boosters. Her interests included bowling, singing and dancing, but most important to her was the love and care she gave to her family.

Mrs. McWilliams is survived by a daughter, Gail McWilliams of Easton; two nieces, Susan Hickey and her husband Ted of Seaford, DE and Shari Lingg and her husband Jim of Ellicott City, MD; a nephew, Steve Blades and his wife Shari of Hurlock, MD; three grandnieces, Katie Hickey, Jennifer Lingg and Kirsten Blades; two grandnephews, Alex Lingg and Dylan Blades; several cousins; and three special friends, Fay Sisco, Yvonne Yockey and Jean Elias.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Elise C. Blades.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, September 8, 2003 at 2:00 PM at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD, where friends may call an hour prior to the service.

Memorial donations may be made to the Talbot County Humane Society, PO Box 1143, Easton, MD 21601 or Hear Now, 6700 Washington Ave. South, Eden Prairie, Minnesota 55344, an organization to assist low-income individuals to obtain hearing aids. It can make a difference.
