

Elva Mae Rausch

January 15, 2002

Elva Mae Rausch of Centreville, MD died on tuesday, January 15, 2002 in the Easton Memorial Hospital, Easton, MD of heart failure. She was 90.

Mrs. Rausch was the daughter of the late Dorrie and Fannie Mae Usilton See. She was a homemaker.

For many years, Mrs. Rausch did wallpapering in and around the Centreville area. After moving to Kenton, DE, she stayed active by providing care to several senior residents in the Kenton area. She enjoyed being home and especially enjoyed cooking large Sunday dinners. She enjoyed gardening and working in her yard and in her earlier years she enjoyed dancing mostly every Saturday night.

She was pre-deceased by two husbands, William Myers Conley who died in 1947 and Leonard Rausch who died in 1990.

Mrs. Rausch is survived by two daughters, Charlotte C. Legg of Centreville and Shelby Jean Cahall of Millington; two sons, William Franklin Conley of Centreville and Clyde Conley of Millington; 13 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a brother, Charles See.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, January 18, 2002 at 11:00 AM at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville, MD where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be in Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville, MD.
