

Emmary "Emma" Sweeney

November 4, 2005 - September 17, 2025

Emmary Tate Sweeney of Trappe, Maryland was born on November 4, 2005, in Annapolis, Maryland. On September 17, 2025, she was welcomed into the Lord's embrace, following complications after a recent cardiac event. She was 19 years old.

She is survived by her parents, Kevin and Julia Sweeney, also of Trappe. She is also survived by her siblings Avery Cipriano (Dominic) of Grasonville, Maryland, and Aidan and Kathleen Sweeney of Trappe. In addition to her parents and siblings, she is survived by her Godson and nephew, Angelo Cipriano, as well as Grandparents Raymond and Mary Claytor of Easton, Maryland and L. Michael and Ann Sweeney of St. Michaels, Maryland.

Emmary was a lifelong parishioner of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Easton, where she also attended school from Pre-K through High School. She participated in many clubs and earned her acceptance into several Honor Societies. Over the years, she received countless accolades and awards for her academics, athletics and character. She gladly volunteered to serve in many capacities within the school and community when given the opportunity.

She was fiercely competitive and a naturally gifted athlete from a young age. She began playing Talbot field hockey and lacrosse in kindergarten, until she moved on to playing for her school teams. She started playing Club lacrosse in third grade and went on to play at the highest level with her beloved M&D 2024 Black lacrosse team out of Baltimore. She took great joy in traveling and playing the sport she loved with teammates and coaches she respected and cherished. Upon graduation, she was committed to play lacrosse at Georgetown University in Washington, DC.

She recently helped coach the Saints Peter and Paul Women's Lacrosse Team and worked in the Religious Education Department at the parish. She loved to spend time in her favorite place, Bald Head Island, North Carolina as often as possible. She also enjoyed attending concerts, being with her family and friends and chasing the next beautiful sunset.

Despite her health challenges over the past several years, she endured it with grit and grace as she did everything else in life. She will be remembered for her beauty, kindness, gratitude, humility, perseverance, faith and most of all, her love and the lasting impact she had on everyone who knew her.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Thursday, September 25th, 2025, at 11am at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Easton, MD.

Church doors will open at 10am for those that wish to pay respects prior to the service starting, although the family will not be greeting guests prior to the service.

Burial will be private.

Immediately following Mass, all are invited to join the family for a Celebration of Emmary's life at The Oaks Waterfront Hotel, 25876 Royal Oak Rd, Easton, MD 21601.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Emmary's memory can be made to Amy's Army

(<https://www.amysarmymd.org/>) or the Ronald McDonald House - Baltimore (<https://rmhcmaryland.org/>)

“ I met Emmary during her stays in the CSICU. When I think of Emmary I think of girl talks, "spa days", and lots of laughter. Emmary always took the time to ask me about my life and remembered all the details. Even on her darkest days she continues to be a light for others. It was a blessing to know you.

“ I took care of Emmary at Medstar for her follow up care of her LVAD. She greeted us at every visit with a huge smile, which I will never forget. She brought so much inspiration to all of us who took care of her and we will never forget her. Our hearts were broken when we heard of her passing. We send prayers and condolences to her wonderful family. She will continue to be a shining light wherever she is. May God Bless.

“ I had the privilege of caring for Emmary during some of her stays on the cardiac surgery stepdown unit at UMMC. She was always very nice and very polite, even in the face of all she had been through, and would continue to go through. I can speak for many of us when I say we were devastated to learn of Emmary's passing. I will always carry her-and her lovely family- in my heart.
