

Erma E. Tyler

October 19, 1932 - April 4, 2026

Erma E. Tyler, of Tilghman, died on April 4, 2026, at home. She was 93 years old.

Born in Richlands, NC on October 19, 1932, she was the daughter of George William and Bertha Mae Marshburn Crews. She attended school in both North Carolina and Talbot County, graduating from St. Michaels High School. On January 31, 1951, she married the late Lawrence H. Tyler, Sr.

Erma worked at the Tilghman Packing House for a period of time before home to raise her family. Mrs. Tyler had many interests including reading scripture, studying history of both North Carolina and the world, gardening, and visiting people limited to living in their homes. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family.

She is survived by her children, Lawrence "LT" Tyler, Jr, and his wife Sheila, of Tilghman, Daniel "Danny" Tyler, Sr, and his wife, Lynn, of Easton, and Judi Foracre, and her husband, Al, of Huntsville, TN; several grandchildren, great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren. She is also survived by many beloved nieces and nephews. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband and her siblings.

Friends may call at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, on Friday, April 10, 2026, from 11am until 12pm. A funeral will immediately follow at the funeral home beginning at 12noon. Interment will take place at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Donations in her memory can be made to: Talbot Hospice, (<https://talbothospi>

“I only met Mrs. Irma twice and bitty times it was like I had known her forever. She had the voice of an d angel and I loved to hear her sing the gospel and to talk about God. She touched my life in a way no one could imagine. Rest easy Mrs. Irma you are home now. Love and prayers to her family and friends left behind.
