“ By God's grace and mercy, Dad/Grandpa Ernie recently entered the ultimate Sabbath rest. He left behind a far reaching legacy of love and giving that spanned the globe. Everyone who knew him was touched in some way by his generous heart. Even through his last days on Earth, he remained positive and always had encouraging words. While our family will miss this wonderful man, thankfully for him it's just the beginning of the most awesome, never-ending time of his life. Thank You Lord Jesus for allowing us to know Ernest Edgar Moore as our father and grandfather. Love, Andy, Marcia, and Drew

“ Uncle Buster was a special person. He was brilliant of mind but never let his brilliance over shadow his humanity towards others or his faith. His birthday was the same as mine and somehow that made me feel special. As a youngster, he new I had a passion for cultural anthropology and sent me coins from all the nations he visited during his career. I still have them. As an adult he helped me understand the importance of forgiveness and reconciliation. I will cherish the visit he and Carole made to our home while they were vacationing in Florida last year. I couldn't stay sad with his unique sense of humor. Uncle Buster embraced my daughter Brooke during college and her cancer treatment. I will be forever grateful for his kindness. I will miss Uncle Buster but I know he is now with our Lord and Savior Christ Jesus. I believe in my heart and soul Uncle Buster will continue to embrace Brooke as her special guardian angel and watch over her for always.
God will bless you Uncle Buster.

My sincere and heartfelt condolences to Carole and my cousins Jeff, Brad, Andy and Scott and their families during this time of sadness and reflection.

“ I was in Baltimore with Brooke because of her life changing experience with cancer. As hard as this has been I was so fortunate to be close enough to be able to go to Chestertown and share some precious time with Buster the day before he had to leave us. He has a special place in my heart and the hearts of my family members and he will be sorely missed. Our best to everyone.

“ Uncle Buster was and always will be one of the kindest people I have ever known. He always thought of others and did for others first. He was very supportive while I was going through my 18 month cancer treatment. His phone calls and cards were always a joy to receive. I am so sad that he has left us and will miss his crooked smile so very much. I am happy to have spent a few days with him before his passing. I adored him and always will cherish him in my heart.
Love,
