“ I met Eugenia as a student in my class at a local (NC) college. She was so light- hearted and fun to be around. Sorry she left way too early but I'm so glad I was given a piece of time to spend with her.RIP Eugenia xo

“ I never met Eugengia in person but we shared many a long talk on the phone over a few years.
I felt I got to know her during our talks on the phone.
She was in a world that seemed to be to big for her at times.
She shared with me many of her lifes experiences and some were beautiful and some were rough.
She was in touch with beauty and willing to live her life as best she could and worked hard at staying afloat at times but somehow managed to survive hard times and still laugh and see the beauty in others and herself.
I was sad to hear today about her passing and hoped somehow someone could and would save her.
I hope she was not alone at the end.
Eugenia will forever remain in my thoughts as a example of a woman who had beauty , talent and so much more.
We met thru another person in her life that spent time with her and as I said I wished for her more then she got from so many.
Go to sleep Little Eugenia and Good Bless you.
I can see u smiling down on us .maybe saying he Guys this ain't so bad.
Love
Your Friend Diane
and Jimmy Gray says Hello Girl and he misses you.
