“ To the family,

I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one, Mrs Choi. The passing of a loved one can leave a person feeling lost and heartbroken. However, the bible is a sure source of comfort for those who have lost loved ones in death. I hope you find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be raised up back to life in perfect conditions free from mourning, outcry, pain, and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3-5). These are just few of many comforting scriptures. If you would like to know more about how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please feel free to visit www.jw.org.

“ Dear Choi and Jantz Families-My Husband Ken and I want to send you our sincere condolences in your loss of Sook. She was a dear kind neighbor always with a smile and a wave. We will miss her so much and enjoyed seeing her outside with her new friend "Coco"! Our puppy loved to visit them both when they were out for walks. I was able to talk to her a few times in the office of Hyde Park when she needed some help with letters and information she got in the mail. I know she loved taking her grandsons to the pool in the summer too! She was so fond of them and had such a good time with them. They were a very special part of her life! If we can be of help in any way I can be reached at the Hyde Park Office. 410-822-4350 Sincerely, Jonnette and Ken Kvamme

“ To the Choi and Jantz families please except my sincere condolences for your loss of Sook. It was quite a terrible shock for her many friends and neighbors here in her Hyde Park community. She was a kind, pleasant lady as well as an avid and successful bingo player. Our Tuesday nights at bingo will not be the same without her smiling face...If there is anything any of us can do for you please let us know.

With deepest sympathy,

*Emily Meintzer (45 Kensington Dr. Hyde Park) 410-822-1655)
