“ Looking back it is hard to believe that she moved to Maryland over 20 years ago and that we were blessed to have all that time with her. I will always remember the many holidays and how the wine did flow. Evie was always careful that she got her share and often questioned at the end why someone else got more than she did. We will remember the many happy hours in the hangar with "the Ladies". Here is a glass raised to a little angel who I'm sure is watching over all of you now. Great picture of her.

Evie in Scotland. Apparently the piper had cleanliness issues; hence her expression. RIP Evie
