“ I wanted to express my condolences to all of you for your loss. When I saw Miss Fannie's obit in the paper my childhood rolled in front of me like a movie screen. Those days of living down Jackson Creek were such an intregral part of my life formed by friends like Miss Marie, Miss Fannie and all you girls that helped mold and shape my childhood. Miss Fannie will be missed by many, but her life with the Lord will be such a wonderful new venture. Thanks to all for allowing me to share in your lives which in turn made me who I am today. Miss Fannie- Good bye and God Bless!##imported-begin##Holly Ewing Baker##imported-end##

“ To all the girls. I will always cherish the memories I shared with your family and MOM MOM. The late night scrabble and cards games where always fun and she would always win. She will be missed and it was an honor to have her in my life and for her to share her wisdom and her grace and love will be ever lasting and in my heart always.

love you all

“ *To the family of Ms. Fannie,
I have tried to find out where Ms. fannie had moved and no luck. I want each of you to know that I loved and respected her as if she was my own mother.
She used to call me often and I have really missed her calls.
God be with each of you at your time of loss but remember she is now in the arms of our lord.
Sincerely,
Charlotte Dukes###imported-begin##Charlotte Dukes###imported-end##*
