“ My Uncle Fletch reminds me so much of my Dad... They were two and a half years apart in age... Uncle Fletch was just quite simply cut from a different cloth... Never a complaint... Never a day of work missed... Never not working on something when I was around him as a child... He was always busy making sure his family had everything they needed...

My Dad revered him when they were growing up and he never shared a childhood memory with me that did not have Uncle Fletch in it... He always seemed so quiet when I was around him as a child... and now I certainly know why... because Uncle Fletch was the epitome of “actions are why words mean nothing”

My Dad was my biggest hero and my best friend and not a day goes by where I'm not deeply moved by a memory from my Dad... as I'm sure will be the case for Fletch... Chrissy and Dale and Uncle Fletch. Dad... Please hold Uncle Fletch as he comes back to be by your side

My heart is heavy... My eyes have not been dry since Friday... My thoughts and prayers are with Aunt Doris and my cousins... I love you

I've always thought that if there are souls... then they are made of our memories and the love that we shared... they are undimmed by time... they are unbound by death... God Speed Uncle Fletch... I love you
