

Florence Elizabeth Ball

January 23, 1948 - October 26, 2023

Florence Elizabeth Ball of Easton, Maryland died on Thursday, October 26, 2023, from breast cancer. She was 75.

Ms. Ball was born in Trenton, NJ on January 23, 1948, to Franklin (Frank) William Cummings & Eileen Mushaw Harrison Cummings, both of whom preceded her in death. The family (her parents having been originally from Tilghman Island), later returned to the Eastern Shore to settle in St. Michaels, Maryland, where she married William Thomas Ball, Sr.

Early in her life, Ms. Ball became an accomplished professional organist. In the early 1970s, she led the adult and youth music gospel choir at the United Methodist Church in Girdletree, Maryland. In the mid to later 70s, she returned to the mid-Shore, where she played organ jazz and classic rock at Harrison's Chesapeake House on Tilghman, Island. Upon request, Ms. Ball also played the pipe organ at various churches on the Shore.

Ms. Ball then pursued her Associate Degree in Architectural Drafting and Design at Chesapeake College and became an architectural draftsman for several years. Later in life she finally settled in Easton, Maryland working for the Talbot County Planning and Zoning office, from which she retired in 2017.

In addition to her husband Scott R. Reynolds, Ms. Ball is survived by her son

William Thomas Ball, Jr. and his wife, Eve Zartman-Ball and by her daughter Rebecca Jo Ball. She is also survived by her sister Helen McQuay and her husband, David McQuay and her niece and nephew, Jessica McQuay & David J. McQuay, and his wife Patti McQuay. She is also survived by four grandchildren Jeremiah Holliday, Phelicia Ball, Ismael Hernandez-Ball, and Alexandra Zartman-Ball; and two great-grandchildren Julianna Holliday, and Astro Scissum.

Memorial Services will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home in Easton, MD on Wednesday, November 15, 2023, at 12 noon. Guests are welcome to come early from 11:30 am on to interact with the family before the service begins if desired. Interment will be private.
