

Florence "Flo" Joan Emory

April 5, 1928 - September 9, 2017

Florence Joan Emory of Centreville, MD, passed from this world peacefully with family by her side on September 9, 2017, at the Anne Arundel Medical Center. She was 89 years old.

Florence was born on April 5, 1928, in Jamaica, NY, to the late Charles V. Uhlinger and Marie A. Barrett Uhlinger. She attended Sacred Heart in Bayside, St. Bartholomew in Amherst, and Bishop McDonald High School in Jamaica, graduating in the Class of 1946. She then began working in New York City, and continued her education by attending College Misericordia in Dallas, PA. She graduated in 1950 with an education degree. She moved to Annapolis, MD, and began teaching English and Music at Southern High School. On July 26, 1952, she married John Willis Emory of Centreville, MD.

Florence shared her love of the arts, music, and literature with her family and many friends, including her church family. She was a long-standing member of Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church in Centreville, MD. She enjoyed gardening, swimming, painting, and playing her violin.

Florence Emory is survived by her nine children, Beth McCormack, Catherine Emory, Patricia Keene, John Emory, Jr., Cynthia Hicks, Mary Sue Swigert, Sandra Ross, Helen Young and Aimee Emory; nineteen grandchildren; and ten great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, John Emory, and her sisters, Helen Marie Uhlinger, Mary Noel Cronin, and Frances Sela.

A visitation will be held on Thursday, September 14, from 5-7 p.m. at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD. A funeral mass will be celebrated on Friday, September 15, at 11 a.m. at Our Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church in Centreville, MD. Burial will follow at St. Peter's Catholic Cemetery, Queenstown, MD.
