

Floyd Sheldon Butler III

May 10, 1974 - June 18, 2025

Floyd S. Butler III of Chester, Maryland passed away on June 18, 2025. He was 51. Floyd was born in Easton, MD on May 10, 1974. He was the son of Floyd S. Butler Jr. and the late Ann Claudette (Stevens) Butler.

Floyd is a graduate of Queen Annes County High School. In his high school years Floyd met the love of his life, Stephanie Cordle. In July 1995, Floyd married Stephanie in Centreville, MD. They were married for 29 years. Floyd and his wife made their home in Chester, MD where they raised their two children.

Floyd was a devoted father who never missed a single game or practice, always cheering from the sidelines with unwavering pride and support. Whether it was on the field or at home, he was always there fixing anything that needed to be fixed, lending a hand without hesitation, and showing his love through quiet acts of service. His presence, steady and dependable, was a gift to all who knew him.

Growing up on Kent Island Floyd enjoyed the outdoors. He would go fishing and camping with his family. One of his hobbies was putting together RC cars and trucks which he loved to race. He also enjoyed going to Yard Sales and Auctions. Floyd liked doing projects in the garage with his father. One special project was restoring a rusty old Ford Tractor. Floyd started working at an early age so he could buy his first vehicle when he turned 16 which was a Chevrolet El Camino. Floyd worked at Prospect Bay Country Club Golf Course for over 30 years as a Golf Course Technician.

He is survived by his Wife Stephanie, his Daughter Brittney Walters (Scott), his Son Floyd Butler IV (Grace), his Father Floyd Butler Jr., his two Sisters Betsy Quathamier (Rob) and Shelly Martin (Rich), his Nephew Randy Timms (Michelle) and two nieces Alexis Siegert (Garrett) and Ashley Martin. He is predeceased by his Mother Ann Butler and nephew Brian Bowman.
