

Floyd W. Chance Sr.

April 18, 2001

Floyd Wallace Chance, Sr. won his victory in the Lord on April 18, 2001. Born in Talbot County on July 5, 1928, he was the youngest of Clarence D. and Leona White Chance. He lived in the Easton area his entire life. Floyd was a farmer, an owner of a lawn service, and for 18 years was an estate manager for the late Honorable & Mrs. William C. Foster. For the past 15 years, Floyd utilized his extensive construction skills and immeasurable talent as a building contractor. In 1947, he married Louise Sherwood, who died on February 6, 1978. From this union two children were born, Bonnie Louise Purvis and Floyd W. Chance, Jr. (Bunky). He was well known for his willingness to do for others, no matter how large or small the task. His kind heart and generosity will be sadly missed.

Mr. Chance is survived by his beloved Majel; his daughter, Bonnie Purvis of Richmond, VA; his son and daughter-in-law, Bunky and Jenny Chance of Oxford; his step-granddaughter, Brandi Wright, and three grandsons and their wives, William T. Purvis, Michael and Jeannie Purvis, all of Richmond, and Robert and Bobbie Jean Purvis of Houston, TX; a great-grandson, Master Carter Andrew Purvis of Richmond, VA; two sisters, Louise Whitby of Trappe and Mildred Dulin of Galena; two brothers and their wives, Vernon and Jean Chance of Bethlehem, and Earl and Marie Chance of Easton; two sisters-in-law, Margaret Chance of Rock Hall and Alma Chance of Trappe; a dear and close friend, Garland Harrison; and several nieces and nephews. Two brothers, Charles B. Chance and Lester Chance, and two sisters, Elsie Warner and Dorothy Cheezum, are deceased.

Family and friends are invited to come and celebrate his life in a memorial service at the First Wesleyan Church in Easton on Monday, April 23, 2001 at 7:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 in honor and memory of our beloved Floyd – a faithful father, brother, uncle and friend.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home, Easton.
