“ Our sincere condolences for your loss. My in-laws, Raymond and Darlene Wolf were neighbors in Easton for several years until my father-in-law passed and Darlene moved closer to us in Fairfax, VA. We met Fran several times and after my father-in-law passed years earlier, she would keep in touch with Darlene nextdoor. Such a sweet lady.

“ Miss Frannie was a Breath of Sunshine to everybody during the time I worked at GM Giant. Always a Kind Word and a Good Thought to everyone in an, otherwise, chaotic atmosphere. We will miss you, Miss Frannie. God has a Special Place for you in Heaven. God Bless You.

“ So many special times and memories with Ms. Frannie aka "Mom". I met her when my husband worked at GM Giant. She always had a special place in her heart for him, and she always knew I would "share" him with her for a dance at the Christmas parties! Lots of great dinners with her, and spending time with her and Pumpkin. Heaven gained a lovely angel. Love and miss you Frannie!

“ I first met Mrs. Smith when I worked at the drug store. She always had a smile on her face and kind and friendly comment to share. Seeing this brings a tear to my eye - she was such a wonderful person. I just saw and talked to Mrs. Smith last week and I'm in a state of shock to hear of her passing. Thoughts and prayers go out to the family in this time of loss.
