“ I loved my Grandfather very much. As a little boy, I would stay with him at Whispering Pines NC. We loved to play UNO together and he would let me hit golf balls in his front yard, I never hit them so great. He constantly tried to teach me math and always told me great stories about the family as well as the history. As I grew up a little more I stayed with him again, this time at Chestertown MD. With my cousin Daniel. Again great times! As he was getting older and staying strong as an Ox, what I loved talking to him about most and one of his favorite things to discuss was our family Genealogy. I will greatly miss those conversations. He was a intelligent man with a big heart, he was strong willed and loved family. Frank Aten will be missed dearly by many and will now be watching over all of us from heaven reunited with his lovely wife Emily Ruth Aten. Grandpa, I love you so much, check on me from time to time. God bless.
