

Frank David Mugavero

November 16, 1943 - June 20, 2026

Beloved husband, father and grandfather, Frank David Mugavero, born on November 16, 1943, died peacefully early on the morning of June 20, 2026.

Born and raised in the Bronx, and having lived in many communities in Italy, CA, NY, VA and MD, Frank enjoyed a rich and diverse life. He served as captain in the US Air Force, and worked in financial services, but his Touch of Class Carpentry business was his greatest source of professional pride.

He loved singing, playing piano, hiking, cooking, sailing, fishing, and all things related to nature. Above all he loved his family.

Frank was predeceased by his brother David Mugavero and by his parents David and Leonora Mugavero.

Frank is survived by his wife of 42 years Marla Spring, his adult children Julie Mugavero (Neil Farley), Adam Mugavero, Gabriel Spring, Noah (Megan) Spring, and his grandchildren, Keiran, Cole, Olive, Julian, Shiloh, Micah and Sebastian.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Alzheimer's research or a favorite animal rescue would be greatly appreciated.
