

Frank Archer Hobson III

September 5, 2007

Frank Archer Hobson III passed away on September 5, 2007, at age 77, due to heart failure, while on vacation in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Frank Archer Hobson III was born on April 24 1930, in Savannah, Georgia. He was the son of Frank Archer Hobson Jr. and Margaret MacPherson Stoddard of South Boston, Virginia. He lived in the east coast/mid-Atlantic region most of his life and had resided on the Eastern Shore since 1975.

Frank attended St. Christopher's School in Richmond, VA; he also attended Woodberry Forest School in Woodberry, VA. He then went onto attend Hampden-Sydney College in Hampden-Sydney, VA.

Frank began his work career crewing on merchant marine ships going all over the world. He then worked as a steel worker on high-rise construction projects in Savannah, Georgia. Frank spent the majority of his work life in pharmaceutical sales. His greatest work accomplishment was helping his sons found F.A. Hobson Landscaping, Inc., of Queenstown, Maryland.

His early work years instilled a real sense of adventure in Frank and he loved to travel. He spent many years traveling through Central and South America. He lived for few years in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, where he married and started a family. Frank and his family then settled permanently in the United States.

He spent his last years taking small trips both nationally and internationally. Additional hobbies include: family genealogy, cooking and entertaining, boating, crabbing, fishing, hunting, and gardening.

Frank Archer Hobson had accepted Christ in his heart. He is predeceased by his wife Ludmila S. Hobson, and survived by his three loving sons, Frank Andrew Hobson and his wife Diane, of Centreville, MD; Edward Patrick Hobson and his wife Sarah, of Reston, VA; John Henry Hobson and his wife Elizabeth, of Denton, MD; his brother Harry S. Hobson, of Richmond, VA; and six loving granddaughters; Leigh, Katy, Annie, Erika, Cicely, and Miranda; and very dear and loving friend Ute Hudson.

Family and friends may call on Thursday, September 13, 2007 from 1 to 2 pm at the Old Wye Church, 14114 Old Wye Mills Road, Wye Mills, MD 21679. A funeral service will be held on Thursday, September 13, 2007 at 2 pm at the Old Wye Church. Interment and wake will follow at the Old Wye Church.

Memorial contributions may be made to: Genesis Eldercare House in the Pines Activities Department, c/o Elsie Garey's Church Ministries, 610 Dutchman's Lane, Easton, MD 21601.
