“ As much as having to live on dialysis is not the best part of anyone's life Frank made the best of it. He always came in the unit with a smile and everyone was happy to see him. He is a kind gentle soul who I am going to miss seeing at Chestertown Dialysis. May you rest in peace Frank.

More great memories!

Melissa Wilhoit - December 07, 2015 at 06:13 PM

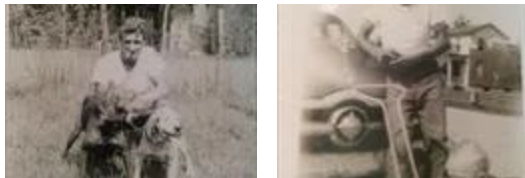

Mr. Frank was a part of my past but he left me and my family with a lot of memories. He was a Charter Member of the Crumpton Vol. Fire Dept. and I know he was proud of that. Mr. Frank and Miss Nettie were the kindest people. All of his children were his life Beverly, Peanut, Frankie and Eddie and then his grandchildren came Jimmy Boyles, Melissa Wilhoit, Janet Powell, Stephanie Smith and the great grandkids came Colin and Taylor Withoit, Andam Boyles and Matthew and Natalie Dominick. They all loved him very much and they could not have asked for better grandparents as Frank and Nettie. That whole family were also part of my life as a teenager and up. Lots of great memories were made. I hope Mr. Frank is in a good place. I know Miss Nettie is waiting for him. RIP I still miss the curl on his forehead.

“ As a kid I grew up spending my Saturday nights going to listen to my poppop play music. I loved to hear him sing and sit in his lap while he played the drums. There was hardly ever a time when I did not go with him. We always had such a good time. I love you poppop 💙 RIP
