“ We, Tom and Fran White, wish to offer our sympathy and compassion to Maryann and her wonderful, loving family. Fred was truly a brave, courageous soldier in the cancer war and he did fight every step of the way to spend every precious minute with his wife and family members. The time did come when Fred so deserved a peaceful haven to rest his weary body from the battles that he fought for so long in the cancer war. He has earned his Purple Heart and most of all has earned the love and devotion of his wife and family for all of his gifts of love and dedication as a husband, father and grandfather.

May you rest in peace, Fred, and watch over all who so loved and admired you. The Lord greeted you with open , welcoming arms with a warm smile on His face when you arrived on Sunday. We do believe that you will be watching over your family and friends and guiding all of us in this challenging world.
