

Frederick Duvall Dallam

March 15, 2005

Frederick Duvall Dallam died at his home in Trappe on Tuesday, March 15, 2005. He was 77.

Born March 25, 1932 in Baltimore, MD, he was the son of the late Kenelm and Edith Stansbury Dallam. Following graduation from Sherwood High School in 1951, he attended the University of Maryland where he received his BA degree in English, Speech and Drama in 1955, and was a member of the A.T.O. Fraternity. He was also honored by being named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, the National Collegiate Players Fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa Fraternity. Following his honorable discharge from the U.S. Navy, where he served as a pilot from 1955 to 1959, he took a position with Alexander Proudfoot Company, a management consulting firm specializing in business scheduling, where he was an executive and served twice in Belgium, until his retirement in 1994.

He was a member of the Tred Avon Yacht Club where he served as a past Commodore, the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club, and the Talbot County Historical Society where he served for two years, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of The Arc and The Dove and The Jamestown Society. In his spare time he enjoyed sailing.

Mr. Dallam is survived by his wife, the former Eleanor Baker, whom he married December 6, 1958; three children, David Chandler Dallam of Washington, D.C., Elizabeth "Betsy" Dallam Paul and her husband Mitchell of Damascus, and John Duvall Dallam of Jersey City, NJ; a sister, Sally Dallam McAlpin of Princeton, NJ and a grandson, David Alexander Paul. He was predeceased by a sister, Elizabeth Dallam Robertson.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or St. Paul's Episcopal Church, PO Box 141, Trappe, MD 21673 or the Talbot County Historical Society, 25 S. Washington St., Easton, MD 21601.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Easton, MD.
