

Freeda Morris Collins

September 28, 2001

Freeda Morris Collins of Chestertown, MD died on Friday, September 28, 2001 at the John's Hopkins Bay View Burn Center, Baltimore, MD. She was 89.

Born on February 17, 1912 in Delaware, she had been a resident of Chestertown since 1929. She enjoyed gardening, attending church, traveling, especially to Nova Scotia and Arizona. She was very skilled at sewing and crocheting and loved to do both. She loved taking care of her bird "Alfred" and most of all she was very family oriented and enjoyed spending time with her family.

Mrs. Collins was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Chestertown.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Thomas Collins, Sr. and two children, Sallie O. Collins and Edward Thomas Collins, Jr.

Mrs. Collins is survived by her daughter, Marta Collins McClain of Chestertown; a son, James T. Collins of Chestertown; six grandchildren, Stephanie Andrews and Stephen Gregory Collins, both of California, Tonya A. McClain, Kirk Collins and Edward Collins, all of Chestertown and Amy McClain of New Jersey; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, October 2, 2001 at 11:00 AM at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Chestertown, MD where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be in the Chester Cemetery, Chestertown, MD.
