“ Sorry for the loss of your mom. My condolence go out to the Jones family. Freyae was a great person and had a heart of gold. I thanks god everyday for having your mom as my boss for 30 straight years up until her retirement with the Maryland Judiciary. And as it was noted in the obituary she had to have her cigarette, coke soda and honey bun every morning. And on Thursday and Friday she had to have her 3 tenders 2 potatoes and roll from the Amish market for lunch. Rest in Heaven Freyae.

I remember that concert! Dad stood up and acted like a crazy teenage girl ready to faint when they took the stage. I was so humiliated it took me years before I would go to another concert with him. Thank you. I needed that laugh.
